

WHITE MUSLIN SKIRT DAY SATURDAY

These "Skirt days" have come to be so well known that many of our customers look forward and wait for them.

The last time we had one of these "Skirt Days" we sold over one hundred Underskirts ranging in price from 79c to $4.50.

Then we were not in a position to offer nearly as good values as we shall be on next Saturday on account of the extremely high price of cottons at that time.

A woman never has too many White Underskirts; a better time to lay in a good supply will not present itself again in a long while.

WHITE PETTICOATS SOILED AND MUSSED

Here is one of the best opportunities for lovers of nice Underwear:—we have about forty Hamburg and Lace Trimmed Petticoats beautifully made of nice materials, that got more or less soiled or mused during commencement week rush. These have been marked at big reductions to close them all out on Saturday.

THEN WE SHOW

6 different styles of Petticoats that were $1.00 for	79c.
11 different styles of Petticoats, most of them $1.25, for	98c.
8 different styles of Petticoats, all formerly $1.50, for	$1.17
11 different styles of Petticoats, all special values, for	$1.25
Several different styles, all clean, fresh goods, at	$1.38, 1.50 and 1.75
19 different styles, every one a sample of fine workmanship, at	$2.00 to 5.00

More than seventy different styles and all on display Saturday. Better see them.

Charles Marr returned yesterday afternoon from Denver, Col., where he has been for nearly a year for his health. He has been greatly improved by the climate there and the treatment he has received at the St. Agnes sanatorium. He will return to Denver in a few weeks with his family and will reside there. He speaks very highly of the Denver climate for consumptive patients and tells of many wonderful cures of patients who were brought there on cots.

William W. Lapoint, formerly of Barre, was on Tuesday admitted to practice as an attorney before the New York court of appeals. He has an office in the Schubert building, and although not yet having done any advertising is already retained in several important cases, among them being that of Francis Lee, the prima donna, who is suing Oscar Hammerstein for one hundred thousand dollars, for alleged breach of contract.

Mr. Lapoint says the latching is out for all Barreites who may be in New York.
